Who We Are

At Welcome Home Atascadero, we offer an upscale, inclusive, and compassionate environment. Our 60-bed facility focuses on fostering a sense of belonging and engagement for all residents, without segregating those with memory challenges. Families trust us to provide value-based, high-quality living experiences.

Here, everyone is family

Our Commitment to Quality Care

Welcome Home Atascadero, where compassionate senior care meets a warm, inclusive community. We offer private rooms for singles or couples, creating a comfortable and personalized environment. Our residents thrive with holistic activities such as art workshops, music therapy, gardening, and gentle exercise, designed to nurture both mind and body.

Family involvement is at the heart of what we do, with regular events and updates to keep loved ones connected. For those requiring specialized care, our inclusive services cater to both memory care and general assisted living needs. Additionally, our licensed hospice care ensures dignity and support at every stage of life. Discover a place where care feels like home.
